

Dedication and Recognition Program

Program and Activity Support and Endowment Opportunities

Endowed Chair:$600,000

Director of Research Programs

Supports appointment and tenure of scientific and/or clinical research director

Endowed Chair:$500,000

Senior Researcher

Supports appointment and tenure of senior scientist or clinical/nursing researcher

1-Year support: $80,000

Resident Research Fellow in Aging

Endowed Fellowship:
$400,000

Supports residency at the graduate level for research and teaching

1-Year support: $40,000

Symposium on Aging

Endowed Event: $200,000

Supports 1-day residency by nationally recognized experts in the field of aging to speak, teach, and conduct workshops for both the community at large and the professional community

1-Year support: $20,000

Seminar Series on Aging

Endowed Series: $100,000

Supports geriatrics-related seminars at Menorah Park for students from educational programs in the area and Menorah Park staff participants

- Medical school
- Residencies in various medical specialties (e.g., Internal Medicine, Cardiology)
- Nursing programs
- HHA programs
- Physical therapy
- Occupational therapy (e.g., low-vision care)
- Nutrition
- Social work
- Psychology
- Chaplaincy/Pastoral care

1-Year support: $15,000

Journal Series on Aging

Endowed Series: $75,000

Supports the publication of articles reporting on IMPARA-based research and development of best practices or written by IMPARA and Menorah Park staff on issues of aging

1-Year support: $10,000
Endowed Scholarship:
$50,000

Scholar in Aging

Supports clinical rotations and field work or research at Menorah Park under the auspices of IMPARA for undergraduate or graduate students pursuing higher certification/accreditation in gerontology or geriatric specialization in their field

- Medicine (e.g., fellow in Geriatric Medicine or Geriatric Psychiatry)
- Behavioral Health Scholar (e.g., psychology and social work students)
- Allied Health Professions
- Nursing

1-year support: $5,000
Endowed Internship:
$25,000

Intern in Aging

Supports brief internships at Menorah Park under the auspices of IMPARA for undergraduate or graduate students in general programs exploring specialization in geriatrics

- Medicine
- Behavioral health
- Nursing
- Allied health professions
- Chaplaincy
- Nutrition
- Gerontology

1-year support: $5,000
Endowed Internship:
$25,000

Employee Scholar in Aging

Supports advanced outside study to further excellence in caregiving for Menorah Park employees in general or geriatrics-related programs

Naming Opportunities: Building and Equipping IMPARA's Home

$500,000

Auditorium and Conference Center

Flexible multimedia presentation space allowing for 100-seat lecture-style events as well as subdivision into 2-4 conference spaces for classes and presentations

$350,000

Study Center

State-of-the-art consultation room and telemedicine portal, laboratory facility; computer lab; subject recruitment database software and management

$250,000

Seminar Room

For small-group learning; featuring multimedia telephone, computer, and video conferencing capabilities

$50,000

Library

Resource library for professionals and families; computer cluster with Internet access and range of software for staff, resident, family and class use